

EQUITY CONSULTANT/CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT (CPA)

- 5-10 hours a week
- Contractor/Consultant position
- Remote operation, work from home or office at your location, some on-site client visits in SF Bay Area

We are looking for a CPA for Equity Accounting and Equity Compensation Consulting Firm to help our clients with standard accounting and finance work related to equity compensation.

Clients:

- Small and Mid-sized Public Corporations and Private Corporations; market cap is 1B and under
- High-tech, bio-med, communications, entertainment, are typical industries
- Location: Bay Area, although some clients are outside of California; all work is done remotely

Project Work:

- Assist corporate finance and accounting staff with standard accounting entries related to stock option expensing.
- Advise on establishing or improving internal controls to assure proper compliance with FASB and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance.
- Guidance on auditors' expectations for the audit of stock-based compensation during the quarter-end audit and year-end audit or financials and back-up documentation.
- Research and cite regulations related to accounting for equity compensation.
- Guidance on financial statements and appropriate presentation of the stock-based compensation line items on income statement and balance sheet.
- Guidance on EPS calculations relating to the diluted effect of stock-based compensation.
- Assist finance and accounting teams on the journal entries related to warrants (issued for financing).
- Related tasks as needed.

Job requirements:

- CPA License
- Bachelor in Finance or Accounting
- Work independently
- Strong client relationship, technical and communication skills
- Must have experience as a consultant
- Demonstrate high level of professional ethics